CATTO CONSULTANCY

ART FOR YOUR HOME

"My living room is transformed! I can't believe how much of an improvement the paintings have made."

Simon Harrison London, NW3

CATTO ART CONSULTANCY

Do you love art?

Do you want beautiful paintings and sculptures in your home?

Most of us do.

But choosing art can be difficult. Finding the right pieces to match your decorative scheme and budget...it's a challenge.

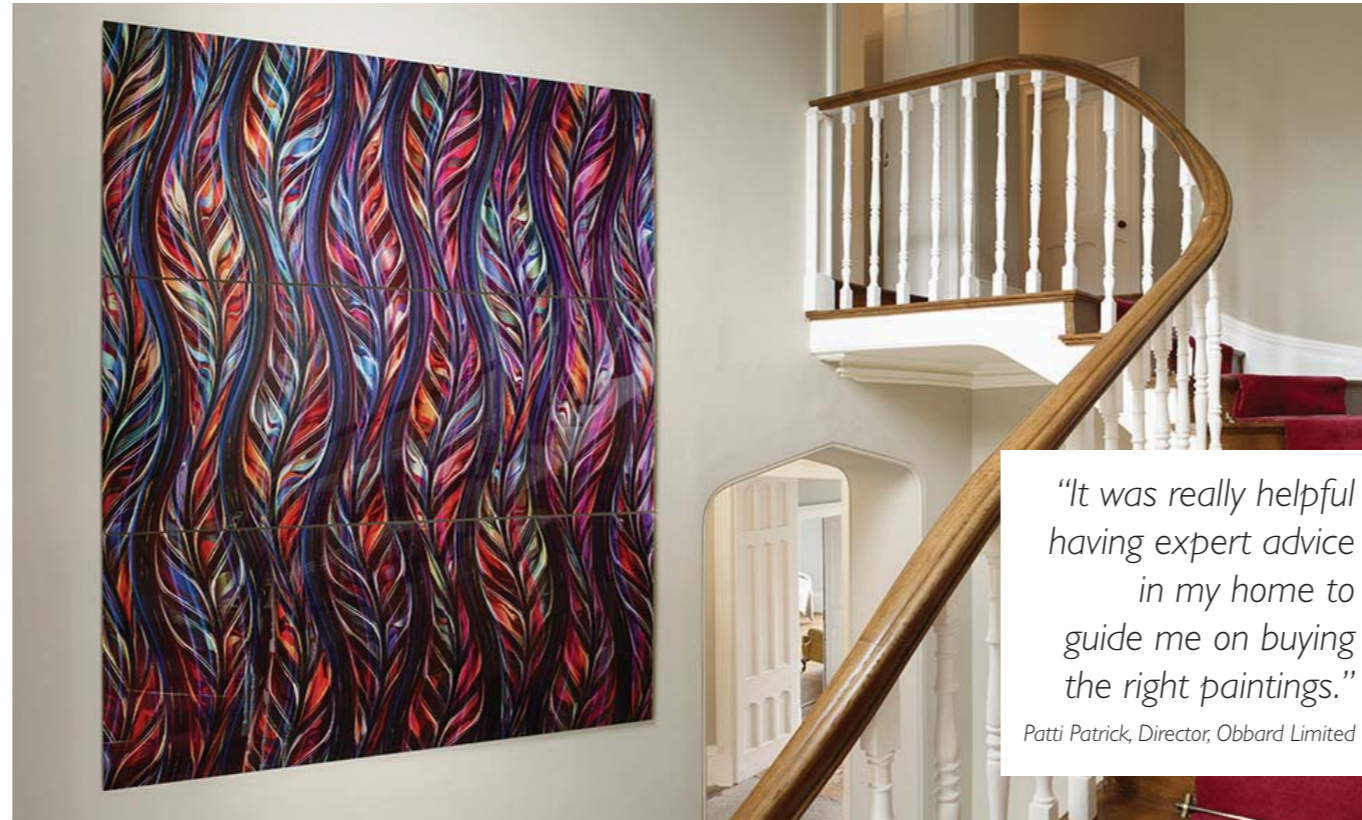

The good news is that we can help.

You may already know the Catto Gallery. We have been selling paintings from our Hampstead base for nearly 30 years.

We also provide an art consultancy service.

Our experienced gallery team can visit your home or business and help you choose stunning artwork to suit your interiors.

This service is absolutely free of charge and there is no obligation to buy.

"It was really helpful having expert advice in my home to guide me on buying the right paintings."

Patti Patrick, Director, Obbard Limited

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

We will visit your property, look at the style of decoration and furnishings, take measurements and ask you about your personal preferences. And, if you have your own interior designer, we are also happy to consult with them.

In a few days, we will return with a selection of ideas for paintings and/or sculptures that we think will enhance the space.

After discussions with you, we will bring a final selection to your home for you to try out.

Should you decide to buy, we then have the work professionally hung and framed to complement other pieces you may have.

You will never be short of choice, as we have over 200 works in our stock rooms at any one time, with access to many more pieces from our artists' studios.
